Sunday 3 November

8.30 – 9.30 BREAKFAST

CHECK OUT AND DEPART NO LATER MIDDAY

We suggest you return to Central London by taking a train from West Dulwich Station. This will take you directly to Victoria Station from where you can continue your journey via London Underground if necessary. There are engineering works on the North Dulwich line, which will mean taking a bus and then changing to a train to London Bridge Station. This could add considerable time to your journey.
